Dear Beloved in Our Lord Jesus Christ,

Followed by Day of Pentecost, Church approaches to the Apostle's fast and to a most unique Feast in her liturgical life: the Feast of the All - Praised and All-Glorious of the Holy Apostles, St. Peter and St. Paul. Amongst the great multitude of saints that sing from heaven to the glory of God these two Apostles stand in a unique and incomparable place. The Fast that leading us to the divine celebration is one of special intensity. The Church employs the fasts as period and tools of preparation, calling us out of the sadly 'normal state of our day-to-day lives, towards a life that is fully oriented around the celebration of and participation in, true holiness'. Our diets are restrained, our life of prayer and divine worship augmented, Our attentiveness to almsgiving increased. The Feast orient our lives around the sacred Mysteries, for they provide the very context of life, of the history of salvation in which we are called through Holy Baptism to be Participants, in which we are partakers of those sacred realities which gives us life.

The Significance of the Feast of St. Peter and St. Paul is that it is preceded not by a single day or short period of fasting, but by a whole season like other three lent periods.

The believers then, like a child turns to its mother, must turn to his mother, the Church, and ask the needful question: 'Why? Why is it that this feast, commemorating two notable and glorious apostolic ministers of the Lord, is given such significance and centrality to our lives.'

The answer is bound up in our witnessing the exemplary lives of these and divine servants of God. These leaders of the Church of Christ were joined in a common aim and work of carrying forth of the light of Truth to all the world. Between them were gifts of apostolic grace in its many forms: their preaching, which set forth the Word of God with clarity, precision, and pastoral power; their leadership, by which they organised and tended the flock and hierarchy of Christ's Church; and their labours, by which they undertook the transformation of human heart, just as the Christ had touched and transformed their own heart.

The feast of the St. Peter and St. Paul calls us to follow the example of these Glorious Fathers in the Faith and to offer the whole of our lives back to Giver of Life. By their prayer and intercession, we may find salvation in the eternal Kingdom of God.

"First in prominence among the Apostles, and teachers to the Universe, Intercede to the Master of all for peace in the world and for our souls great mercy."

Your's In Christ
Josemathewachen
